

Dr. B. JAGAN MOHAN REDDY

Dr B. Jagan Mohan Reddy was born in agriculture family in year 1953 and graduated B.V. Sc., C.V. Sc Rajendranagar. worked in Adilabad, Karimnagar, Warangal, Mahbubnagar and Anantapur of erstwhile Andhra Pradesh for 36 years and retired as Joint Director. He got appreciations from all District Collectors and from Deputy secretary from govt of India for best work done for Gopalamitra in Telangana and was awarded gold medal from CK Rao Endowment trust Hyderabad in 2004 .

Dr. B. JAGAN MOHAN REDDY retired Joint Director (AH) Anantapur, himself a Gold Medal awardee of Dr. C.K. Rao Trust in the year 2004, inspired by the Trust activities volunteered to institute a Gold Medal in memory of his father Late Sri B. Anantha Reddy who reached the abode of heaven in 1986. The award is intended to be presented to field veterinarian for an outstanding performance in promotion of livestock development activities to improve the livelihoods of livestock farmers in his area of work.