

Dr. M.V. Reddy M.V.Sc, MA, Rural Dev (UK), IAS rtd

Dr. M.V. Reddy is born in an agricultural family in Munagala village of Nalgonda (presently Suryapet) dist. He is much encouraged and constantly motivated by his parents and brothers, especially elder brother, late Sri. Musukula Krishna Reddy to pursue & perform in education and service. After matriculation in Munagala village and intermediate education in Govt. Junior college, Suryapet, he has entered A. P Agricultural University to complete his B.V.Sc., in 1983 and M.V. Sc, (Animal Science) in 1985 from Vet. College, Rajendranagar.

He is not only good in academics with distinction (OGPA 3.64/4.00) in B.V.Sc., and University topper with Gold Medal in M.V.Sc., (OGPA 9.87/10.00) but also the best in extracurricular, especially in NCC and Equestrian sports. He won the best physique title (Mr. Vet College) in 1982 and received several medals/ awards in Equestrian sports, both at state and national level between 1980-82. Besides winning All India Best Horse Rider's Trophy in 1982, he is awarded with the NCC Director General's Special Gold Medal for his outstanding performance in National Show Jumping event at New Delhi in 1982.

Starting his service career as Vet. Asst. Surgeon in Mahbubnagar in 1986 got recruited as Asst. Director with top rank in A.P. Public Service Commission in 1988 and reached up to Director Cadre in 2007. He has served as CEO, APLDA from 2007-08 and as DAH from 2009 to 2011, bringing many reforms and making AH Dept into national limelight with his dynamic administration.

He got the privilege of being the second Veterinarian after Dr. C. Hanumantha Rao Garu, to get into Indian Administrative Service in 2011. He served with several State & National Level distinctions and awards as Joint Collector of Ranga Reddy district, Collector of Medchal district, Bhadrachalam district besides Commissioner/ Director of SC Dev. (Social Welfare) Dept, Technical Education Dept and MD, SC Corporation. Retired on 31.5.2021. He is blessed with two sons, who graduated from Indian School of Business and pursuing their career in premier global corporates. Dr. C. Krishna Rao Endowment Trust gratefully acknowledges the munificent donation.